

LIVING IN A SMALL MAINE TOWN

Hi! My name is Jackson and I live in Waldoboro. I am nine years old. There are many reasons why I like living in a small rural Maine town. One of my favorite reasons is at night you can see all the stars and constellations. As opposed to the city with all the lights and you can't see the stars.

Another thing I enjoy about living in the country is the peace and quiet. While the city has all the noise from the traffic and buildings. I can also hear myself think while I write this story.

My absolute favorite is the nature. I love seeing all the animals and the beautiful trees, shrubs and flowers. Something else I enjoy is the fresh clean air I'm breathing right now. Another thing that's fresh and clean in a rural Maine town is the water coming from down under the ground.

One good thing that my parents like is there's no traffic so if you have an emergency and you're in Waldoboro, you can get where you want to go easily.

The last reason I like living in a small Maine town is it's spread out and there's lots of farms and neighbors. The city has skyscrapers, businesses, buildings, houses and apartments. I guess that's the end of my story.

The End

Written by Jackson Paul Vail Age 9